

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE INDIANA PUBLIC ACCESS COUNSELOR
To the Indiana General Assembly

July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008

Pursuant to Ind. Code § 5-14-4-12, the Indiana Public Access Counselor (“PAC”) hereby submits this annual report of activities for the time period covering July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008.<sup>1</sup> This report is presented in three parts: a narrative summary of the activities of the PAC in Part I; the information required to be submitted pursuant to I.C. § 5-14-4-12 in Part II; and appendices with more detailed information about the presentations given and the advisory opinions issued in the past year in Part III.

PART I
Annual Report Narrative and Executive Summary

Public Access Counselor and Staff

On July 1, 2007, Governor Daniels appointed a new Public Access Counselor to a four-year term of office ending June 30, 2011. The current counselor is Heather Willis Neal. The PAC also employs one full-time administrative assistant.

Advisory Opinions

From July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008, the PAC issued 336 written advisory opinions in response to formal complaints. See I.C. 5-14-5 regarding the complaint process. This number represents a 34% increase in the number of advisory opinions issued compared with the previous reporting period and a 720% increase compared to the first reporting period, July 1, 1999 to June 30, 2000. Eleven complaints were pending as of June 27, 2008. Pursuant to I.C. § 5-14-5-9, advisory opinions must be issued within thirty days of receipt of a formal complaint. The deadline for priority complaints is seven days. I.C. § 5-14-5-10; 62 IAC 1. The PAC met the statutory requirement for timely issuance of advisory opinions. A detailed list of advisory opinions follows in Appendix B.

Informal Opinions

In addition to advisory opinions in response to formal complaints, the PAC issues written informal opinions in response to written informal inquiries. Upon taking office on July 1, 2007, the current PAC found a backlog of dozens of requests for informal opinions (the exact number is difficult to determine because the paper files did not correspond completely with the Microsoft Excel spreadsheet), with some of those requests dating back to 2005. As of February 8, 2008, the current PAC and assistant cleared that backlog by contacting each requester and then issuing opinions where the requester was still awaiting an opinion.

In addition to the backlog inquiries, the PAC issued 42 informal opinions in response to requests received in the time period July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008. The established turn-around time for those informal opinions is now three weeks. For the first quarter of 2008, the PAC reported and maintained an average turn-around time of approximately ten days. The PAC anticipates reporting a similar average turn-around time for the second quarter of 2008.

Telephone and Electronic Mail Inquiries

From July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008, the two PAC staff members received and responded to 2,694 inquiries via telephone and electronic mail. This number is up from 2,097 for the last reporting period, which represents a 28% increase. It is difficult to compare certain other data from last year to this year (specifically items 5 and 6 in Part II). The PAC believes this is because we are not aware of written procedures that exist related to entering inquiry information into the Microsoft Access database in which all telephone call and electronic mail information is maintained. As such, the current staff may categorize calls differently than past staff members did. For example, when a person calls to inquire whether a certain action might constitute a violation, this PAC administration does not consider or log that call as a complaint but rather as a general inquiry (reflected in sections 1 through 3 of Part II). The PAC intends to create written guidelines regarding data entry for future reference.

Education and Presentations

The Public Access Counselor made twenty-four educational presentations in nine Indiana cities and towns over the past year. Appendix A contains a list of the presentations.

Handbook and Other Educational Materials

Before this year, the Public Access Handbook was last revised in December 2003. The PAC updated the Handbook this year to include all enacted amendments to the Access to Public Records Act (I.C. 5-14-3) and the Open Door Law (I.C. 5-14-1.5) up to and including those made during the 2008 session of the General Assembly. The Handbook is a resource utilized by many public officials and the public at large, and the PAC receives many requests for the print version of the Handbook. The Handbook is posted on the PAC's website, www.IN.gov/pac, and the PAC encourages individuals and agencies to download it from the website at no charge. While there is still strong demand for a paper version of the Handbook, the PAC budget does not allow printing of bound copies of the Handbook (the PAC will, of course, print a copy pursuant to a request for access to records and charge the requester $.10 per page for the copy). This year the Indiana Coalition for Open Government ("ICOG"), through a grant from the National Freedom of Information Coalition, and the Hoosier State Press Association ("HSPA") printed copies of the Handbook. On June 25, 2008 the PAC received 525 copies of the Handbook for distribution to individuals and agencies; all costs for the handbooks received by the PAC were paid by the ICOG grant and the HSPA.

In addition to the Handbook, the PAC in 2008 has initiated a project to create new resource documents and make those available via the PAC website. Recently created resources include a guide to filing a formal complaint, a public records request guide for offenders, and a two-page resource regarding public access to election records. The PAC intends to add new resources to this list in the coming months. Further, the PAC prepared numerous articles for presentation at continuing legal education and other seminars in the past year. The Counselor also prepared slides and handouts for participants at the educational seminars to which the Counselor was invited.

Because the PAC budget will not allow the PAC to provide copies of slides and handouts to attendees at all events (some of which number in the hundreds), the PAC generally asks the sponsoring organization to provide copies for attendees. The PAC also makes copies of all slide presentations available via the PAC website.

Public Access Counselor Website

The Office of the Public Access Counselor maintains a website at www.in.gov/pac. The website contains over 1,500 formal advisory opinions issued since 1998. In addition to the resources listed in previous paragraphs, the website contains select informal inquiry responses, upcoming and past presentations of the Public Access Counselor, news releases, sample letters and meeting notices, frequently asked questions and other resources. The Office of Technology created a new website for the PAC in the spring of 2008, and the PAC took the opportunity to develop new resources for the site at that time.

Oversight Committee on Public Records

Pursuant to I.C. § 5-15-5.1-18, the Public Access Counselor serves as a member of the Oversight Committee on Public Records, the governing body for the Indiana Commission on Public Records.

PART II Annual Report

- (1) Total number of inquiries received: 2,694
- (2) Number of inquiries received each from the public, media and government agencies:
  - (A) Public: 1329
  - (B) Media: 310
  - (C) Government: 1038
- (3) Number of inquiries resolved: 2,682
- (4) Total number of formal complaints received: 373
- (5) Number of complaints<sup>2</sup> received about each of the following (includes pending complaints):
  - (A) State agencies: 63
  - (B) County agencies: 125
  - (C) City agencies: 61

---

<sup>2</sup> The number of complaints in this section reflects considerably lower numbers than in previous reporting periods. This is because the current PAC reports here only those complaints which were filed as formal complaints under I.C. 5-14-5. In past years, it appears some telephone inquiries were reported in this section as well as in sections 1 through 3. The current report reflects all telephone and electronic mail inquiries in sections 1 through 3. Sections 4 through 7 reflect only those complaints filed as formal complaints using the PAC formal complaint form and the process set forth in I.C. 5-14-5. The number of complaints does not match the number of advisory opinions issued because some complaints were withdrawn or consolidated with other complaints before the PAC issued an opinion.

- (D) Town agencies: 50
  - (E) Township agencies: 25
  - (F) School corporations: 34
  - (G) Other local agencies: 5
